WORDS OF 'ABDU'L-BAHA ABOUT THE HOLY BIBLE

-During the visit of 'Abdu'l-Baha to the City Temple in London, England, in 1911, He wrote in the large Bible, used by generations of clergymen, the following:

"This book is the holy book of God and of sacred inspiration.
It is the Bible of salvation, the noble Gospel. It is the mystery of the Kingdom and its lights. It is the divine bounty and the sign of the guidance of God."

- 'Abdu'l-Baha

- Here are just two of His further references:

"Thou has written that thou lovest the Bible. Undoubtedly, the friends and maid-servants of the Merciful should know the value of the Bible, for they are the ones who have discovered the real significances and have become cognizant of the hidden mystery of the Holy

-Tablets of 'Abdu'l-Baha. Vol. 1, p. 218

- "I beg of God through the confirmations and assistance of the True One thou mayest show the utmost eloquence, fluency, ability and skill in teaching the real significance of the Bible. Turn toward the Kingdom of Abba and seek the bounty of the Holy Spirit. Loosen the tongue and the confirmations of the Spirit shall reach thee".

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The encouragement of many has made this book possible.
The author wishes to express great gratitude and appreciation to Shoghi Effendi, beloved Guardian of the Baha'i Faith, for his profound wisdom and his answers to many perplexing questions; to Martha Root for the inspiration she gave the author to undertake this arduous work; to Dorothy. Baker for her far-sighted and continuous encouragement; to Robert Lee Moffett, F. St. George Spendlove and to many others who have assisted in this great task; also gratitude to the countless others, who in lectures and classes and seminars have shown deep interest and who have urged that this book be made available to all those interested in building a nobler humanity and a "new heaven and a new earth."

John had already chronicled the prophecies of Christ, that He would come in the Glory of the Father; "And I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may abide with you forever."-John 14:16. "And now I have told you before it come to pass that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe."-John 14.29.

Hast thou not heard? "Those who in Christ are dead

These nothing fear
For they shall know Him when He doth appear,
No matter what His Name or Birth or Nation;
No matter what may be His earthly station,
For from the sea of Names they long have fled.
They know Him by the shining of His Light,
As those whose eyes are open see the brightá
And cloudless sun; for the benign bestowing .
Of His great bounties, like the sunlight flowing, Declare Him. He hath Names unto the knowing.

THE VOICE OF GOD

One Like unto the Son of Man

"Behold I stand at the door and knock." -'Rev. 3:20

The curtain rises on the greatest drama in all history.

, "This is the Revelation of Jesus Christ," the clarion call that \. has rung down through the centuries., 'tis established that this Book of Revelation was, given by Christ to John: 'to show unto his servants the things which must, shortly come to pass.' Most scholars state that the Book was received and recorded by John in 96 A.D. on ' the Island of Patmos.' John was commanded by Christ to send this message to the "seven. churches which are in \. Asia," --'v.n-to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamos, Thyatira., Sardis, Philadelphia and Laodicea" the first little Christian missions in what is now Western Turkey. , Whereas in the authoritative --: authentic interpretation' these "churches" refer not only to the early missions, but to the seven great divinely revealed religious systems of the past in the Adamic Cycle, Whose Founders have shed increasing splendour on the Universal Revelation for the New Day. - See P.U.P. p. 158.' " :",

It has been stated by the distinguished scholar, Shoghi Effendi Rabbani, that "The successive Founders of all past Religions, Who, from time immemorial, have shed, with ever-increasing intensity, the splendour of one common' Revelation at the various stages which have marked the advance of mankind toward maturity, may thus, in a sense, be regarded as preliminary Manifestations, anticipating and paving the way for the advent of that Day of Days when the whole earth will have fructified and the tree of humanity will have yielded its destined fruit." -W.O.B. p. 166.'

Now the scene of the great drama, changes. Darkness, ignorance, prejudice, pretense, evil and despair had spread ,over most of the world. There was scarcely any, progress 'and so false had civilization become that even the consciousness of its falsity had vanished. " , .''

It is recounted in the preceding chapter that the Books of God had been sealed ~ith seven seals until the day when. each seal was opened by the Lamb Who stood beside' the Throne. Now Christ pictures another mighty angel in these words: "And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud; and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire." -v; 1. in his heart, so is he."-Proverbs 23:7. Does one alter his thinking unaided? No. Agnostics seem to be unable to change their thinking to recognize the station of the Prophets of God. We reveal the laws and principles, and release the power for the next step forward in both the material and spiritual civilizations. The power released by Moses, Zoroaster, Christ and all the other Prophets was, in each case, the cause of the spiritual and material progress of humanity. A typical example of the birth of a new civilization occurred in 622 A.D.

Suddenly in a dark and barbarous country; Arabia, a great Soul arose Who was not like the other Arabs. Muhammad shed their idols of pictures and images, gave them new laws, and altered their ancient customs. For this He was persecuted and tortured, as is everyone who smashes idols. "Half a time" would be one hundred and eighty degrees. Adding all together, the whole period would be twelve hundred and sixty years, the length of the Muhammadan Dispensation, the lunar years. This was from A.D. '622 to A.D. 1844, when translated to solar years, A. H. 1260 corresponds to A.D. 1844. In the Bible there are many significant prophetic warnings con-

this climactic world drama. Three soul-stirring warnings are: (1) Christ foretold this day of reckoning.,-Matthew 13:40-42,

"As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world, the Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his' Kingdom all things that offend, and them which' do iniquity shall cast them in a furnace of fire; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

"The angels shall come forth and sever the wicked from among the righteous." (2) Also in Matthew 7:21, we read the words of Christ: "Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter' into the kingdom of, heaven,á but he that doeth the of will

My Father which is in' heaven.'? (3)' ;The Prophet Zechariah also wrote: "And I will bring the third part through the fire, and tried: they shall call on myname, and I will hear them: I will say,

It is my people: and they shall say, The Lord is my God."-Zech.

These are very ominous statements, especially as we study their fulfillment in the succeeding chapters' of the Book of Revelation.

The drying up of the water indicates that learning and science were abolished and that ignorance prevailed over the idolized tutor of Muhammad Shah, a vulgar, false-bearded and fickle-minded schemer, and the arbitrary, bloodthirsty, reckless "And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mountain fastnesses of Adhirbayjan, and the latter decreed of the mouth of the false prophet. In the brewing melting lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since the world's history are the result of the horrible iniquity of racial prejudice. Does not the Bible teach this unifying message? This was a vision of the great earthquake, foretold in so many Sacred Writings: In the Old Testament it is foretold: Mal. 2:10. same, that their teachings are but facets of one truth, that their doctrines, and that their missions represent successive stages in REFERENCES the spiritual evolution of human society,

"His' mission is to proclaim that the ages of the infancy and of the childhood of the human race is past, that the convulsions associated with the present stage of its adolescence are slowly and painfully preparing it to attain the stage of manhood, and are heralding the approach of that Age of Ages when swords will be ,f beaten into plowshares, when the Kingdom promised by Jesus Christ will have been established, and the peace of the planet definitely and permanently ensured .. Nor does Baha'u'Jlah claim finality for His own Revelation, but rather stipUlates that a fuller measure of the truth He has been commissioned by the Almighty to vouchsafe to humanity,at so critical a juncture in its fortunes, must needs be disclosed at future stages in the constant and limitless evolution of mankind ... It shows the depths of present day darkness and predicts the new dawn to a humanity which would respond to the Divine Call. But above all, it forcefully reminds modern man that he is not alone in the universe, that his existence is not meaningless, that his destiny is significant, and that the way to God is once again open to him." -See P.D.C.
