Note from editor

Association for Baha'i Studies groups have been rapidly multiplying all over the world ever since the first one was created in Canada in 1974. Here in Singapore, a modest yet important start was made in the year 1996 when the first Singapore Baha'i Studies conference was held on April 5th, at the Baha'i Centre located at 110/D Wishart Road. Selected papers from that conference supplied the impetus to produce this initial Baha'i Studies volume. To encourage full participation, the conference was deliberately not given a specific theme, and as a result, the papers included here cover a wide range of diverse subjects.

With kind permission of the Universal House of Justice, their Research Department's compilation on scholarship brought out in February 1995 is published here as a special supplement. It is hoped that this compilation may always serve as an inspiration and guide towards Baha'i scholarship in Singapore,

Dr. Anjam Khursheed, editor
