

peoples. Verily,

He is the Almighty, the All-Knowing, the Wise. 2

And We beseech Him to water the earth through Thee, that flowers of wisdom and eloquence, the hyacinths of science and inner meanings may spring up therein.

Verily He is the Protector of whoever is faithful unto Him, and [He is] the Helper of those who commune with Him.

There is no God but Him, the All Mighty, the All-Praised. 3

1 A Tablet of Baha'u'llah, listed in partial inventory of Stephen Phelps as BH09144. The original script is also

2 The original translation of this prayer appeared in the Star of the West, dated November 1913, SW_Vol4_No14.pdf. Since then, however, the beloved Guardian retranslated parts of this Tablet such as this paragraph and quoted it in his writings and messages in English.

3 Provisional re-translations of rest of this Tablet is humbly provided by Shidan Ashraf.
