

has been invaluable, for without their efforts this present compilation would not have been possible.

I am moreover indebted to Shoghi Effendi, the late Guardian of the Faith, in the creation of this compilation, having benefitted, in the perusal of his masterful renderings, from his insights which his penetrating vision into the Bahá'í Revelation accorded him. If these provisional translations be regarded as having any merit, it is due in no small measure to the standard of excellency he established and exemplified in his writings, and most especially in his renderings of the works of Bahá'u'lláh.

I would also especially like to thank Alison Marshall and Laura Foster for proofreading the English text and providing a much-needed index.

It is hoped that this work be granted the acceptance and good-pleasure of the Blessed Beauty, for the sake of Whose loved ones these prayers have been translated and compiled, to the end that they may see the magnitude, the plenteousness, the sublimity and the grandeur that is the Revelation of Bahá'u'lláh, draw ever nearer to Him, consecrate all the more their lives to His service, and ceaselessly proclaim His glory to the peoples of the world.
