The transliteration emulates the conventions of Nagari script.
Therefore, many word boundaries are not marked by blanks.
Occasional orthographical peculiarities have been retained, for example:
1. substitution of Anusvara for class nasal: vasanti
2. gemination of consonant after r-: rgg, rmm, rjj, rtt, rvv, rnn, sarddha
3. kecitrtyais etc.
