

Input by Jan Brzezinski

Version 2.00

NOTICE:

A number of sources were used to establish this text.

The first copy was taken from the Kavya-mala edition (Calcutta 1878).

Lee Siegel has a transliterated edition in his "Sacred and profane dimensions of love in Indian traditions as exemplified in the Gita-govinda of Jayadeva" (Delhi: Oxford University Press: 1990 (1978)).

His readings were taken from the Nirnaya Sagara Edition (Bombay 1949) and the Kulkarni edition (Ahmedabad 1965).

Alternate readings based on Siegel's edition are marked ni-.

Other editions:

(ed.) Haridas Das. (Nabadwip: Haribol Kutir, 470 Gaurabda [= 1955])

(ed.) Bhaktivedanta Narayana (Mathura: Gaudiya Vedanta Publications, 2005).

In particular, the first of these two was used in making the 2.00 version.

Some of the additional variant readings were found in the Haridas Das edition.

Two numbering systems are usually followed, one maintaining a sequence throughout, the other separating songs from verses in classical meters.

These latter are also sometimes numbered sequentially from beginning to end rather than starting afresh with each chapter.

The first number of each verse here is the sequential number from the beginning of the chapter including both classical and song verses.

The second number is the alternative system, with all classical metred verses being number sequentially, the song verses numbered from 1 to 8, with one verse designated as the chorus or dhruva-pada.
