

[These three days are most important of all; they are Ridvan Days (April 21st to May 2nd).]

5. May 23rd-The Declaration of the Bab.

6. May 28th-The Ascension of Baha'u'llah.

7. July 9th-The Martyrdom of the Bab.

8. Oct. 20th-The Birthday of the Bab.

9. Nov. 12th-The Birthday of Baha'u'llah.

(4) As to the building of the Bahá'í House of Worship and its unusually quick progress:

"At last Chicago is taking her right position and is now the center of the Cause in America. This will be made more apparent as time passes. The Cause was started on the Western Continent in Chicago. Later on, when it can be afforded, the Foundation Hall is to become the National Archives and the Convention and other things held in a separate building for that purpose." (Stated in Notes).

(5) As to the duty of Bahá'í in relation to war:

"Shoghi Effendi stated that Baha'is should apply to their Governments for exemption from the operations connected with the killing or shedding of blood as the Quakers have done. Some may confuse this with "Conscientious Objectors" who refuse to sustain the Government in any way. but this plan of "Conscientious Objectors", to refuse service of any kind and receive prison sentences for this abstension was not right."

(6) The notes state that it is advisable for the Wilmette Assembly to use Foundation Hall for Teaching meetings, subject to agreement and consultation between the Temple Program Committee and the Wilmette Assembly.

(7) As to the Day of the Covenant (Fete Day of 'Abdu'l-Baha): "The celebration of November 26th as the Day of the Covenant should be observed by the Believers throughout the world. .,

(8) Commemoration of the Ascension of 'Abdu'l-Baha November 28th.
